Fictional Techniques Factual Works Siebenschuh William

with each genre borrowing elements and techniques from the ... - 6 1. thinking about how their genre conventions and form act to 'condition' the way you are responding to them. 2. summarising their subject matter, content, circumstance and their 'story' to gain a sense of the 'big picture'. 3. considering who the texts are intended for and all that this implies - their target audience. audience is a far more important consideration than most people appreciate.
